

COVID-19 Update for Canadian Branches

Recognizing the spread of novel coronavirus (COVID-19) may create a heightened level of concern, First Commercial Bank would like to let you know that we have taken added precautions to keep our clients and employees safe during the outbreak. At the same time, we want to let you know we are here to help. Our branches are open and we will be available to assist you. Before you visit our branches, we respectfully request that you contact us by phone or email first so that we can best prepare for your visit.

For further updates on COVID-19, you can always check back here, visit Public Health Agency of Canada or your provincial Public Health agency.

Thank you for choosing First Commercial Bank.
